

North Pole Mail

Dear Children,

I must say goodbye, my time with you has come to an end. I hope that I have been a good elf, and helped you behaved and be nice.

Remember to always listen to your parents, and to pick up your toys off of the floor.

I will miss you dearly. Do not worry, I will still keep an eye on you from afar.

Please take care until next Christmas when we will all be merry and bright once again.

Happy New Year and Merry Christmas!

Your Elf Friend

From The Desk Of:

Santa Claus

